Course Description:
This course explores the major themes and issues in American history from early settlement through the end of the American Civil War. It emphasizes the political, social, economic, and cultural dimensions of United States history; causal relationships and patterns of change and continuity over time; and the significance of ethnicity, gender, race, and class in historical events.

Course Learning Objectives:
The general learning outcome for all courses on American History is:
- Students will be able to identify and explain the political, social, economic, or cultural dimensions of US history.

In addition, by the end of this course:
- Students will demonstrate introductory knowledge of pivotal trends and issues in American History to 1865.
- Students will demonstrate improved abilities in processing and analyzing information from primary historical sources.
- Students will demonstrate improved skills at crafting written arguments based on primary sources.

Course Requirements:
This class has a required textbook:
It is an eBook which can be accessed via a link on CourseDen or by clicking below: https://store.macmillanlearning.com/us/product/Exploring-American-Histories-Volume-1/p/1319106404
You can also rent this book for 6 months as an affordable option!

In addition, there will be a variety of primary sources available via the textbook and CourseDen.
Course Expectations:

Attendance:
Attendance will not be taken every course period, but it is your responsibility to attend class and get notes from a classmate if you miss a class. There will be four in-class assignments throughout the semester. If you are not present, there will be no opportunities to make these assignments up, but they are only a part of your participation grade. In addition, there will also be several opinion papers given at the end of class. These randomly scheduled papers will be used both as a mechanism for attendance and an opportunity to show understanding of course material.

Exams:
There will be 3 exams in this course. Those exams are non-cumulative and will consist of a mixture of questions including multiple choice, matching, and short answer questions. The exams are scheduled throughout the semester on weeks 6, 11 and a final exam during Finals Week.

Writing Assignments:
History is a reading and writing based discipline. This course will feature multiple assignments based off of the documents from the time period (primary sources). You can find those primary sources in your textbook or via links posted to CourseDen. There are 4 Writing Assignments for this course. These assignments are all between 2 and 4 pages long, double spaced. Two assignments are creative, and two are more analytical. In order to pass this course, you must complete at least two of the Writing Assignments. The directions for each assignment will be available on CourseDen two weeks before the assignment is due. If you choose to complete all 4 assignments, then the two best grades will be used to determine the final grade.

Make Up Exams, Late Work, and Extra Credit:
I will accept late work for this class, but with a penalty of one half of a letter grade for every class section late (so, if the paper would have earned a B-, but was handed in one class late, it would become a C+).

If you need to miss an exam due to a legitimate, documented absence (I reserve the right to require proof) then a make-up exam will be administered following the same format as the exams described above.

There will be extra credit opportunities available that can be counted towards your class participation grade. Those opportunities will be announced via CourseDen.

Overview of Grades:
Your grades in this class will be calculated based off the following scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Assignment</th>
<th>Percentage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>First Exam:</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Second Exam:</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Final Exam:</td>
<td>20%</td>
</tr>
<tr>

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Writing Assignment 2: 10%
Class Participation: 20%

Please note: simply completing all of the assigned work is NOT a guarantee of a passing grade in this course. Also, as some of these grades are cumulative, the final tally will not be available until the end of the semester.

Additional Important Policies:

University-wide:
The university has several university-wide policies that apply to the syllabus. You can find all of them by clicking this link: https://www.westga.edu/administration/vpaa/common-language-course-syllabi.php
It is your responsibility to know and follow these policies that are updated regularly.

Communication and Electronic Devices:
Email:
All University of West Georgia students are provided with a MyUWG email account. I will only answer emails sent from your University account. It is your responsibility to check your university account. Sensitive information, such as grades, will not be discussed over email and can only be discussed in person.
Technology:
You are permitted to use all forms of technology in the classroom, including cell phones/tablets/laptops for academic purposes only. However, you are not permitted to be disruptive. All devices must be set to silent, and if you are found to be disruptive, then there will be points deducted in your overall participation grade. I reserve the right to discontinue the use of technology in the classroom (except in cases where a special accommodation has been granted) if this policy is abused.

Academic Honesty and Plagiarism:
All work must abide by the UWG honor code that applies to all students (If you have forgotten the code, you can access it here). All work must be completed independently unless otherwise specified and must be original. To that end, all of your Writing Assignments will be monitored by Turnitin. Each student is responsible for understanding the nature of, and rules regarding, academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty will result in a failing grade for the course and will be reported the appropriate university authorities.
If you are unsure what constitutes plagiarism, please click here for information from the University Writing Center on plagiarism and excessive collaboration.

Special Accommodations:
If you require accommodations, it is your responsibility to provide me with documentation from the office of accessibility services. It is also your responsibility to arrange for extra time, alternative testing locations, etc., and to remind me in advance. I cannot provide accommodations without University documentation. If you believe you are eligible for accommodations but do not have documentation, please contact the Counseling Center.
