Course Description: This course is a broad survey of the growth and change within the United States from the end of the Civil War to the present. Through lectures, readings, discussions and other activities we will examine political, cultural, and social themes in this nation’s recent history. We will study not only such events as wars and presidential assassinations, but social issues such as immigration and women’s rights, as well. We begin with emancipation and Reconstruction, move through Progressivism, two world wars, the Civil Rights Movement, the nation’s shift to the right, and end with the administration of America’s first African American president. The course is fairly light in reading but emphasizes development of writing skills. Critical thinking and good analytical skills are essential in today’s workplace and sharpening those skills will be a centerpiece of this course.

Course Objectives: In addition to gaining a basic understanding of themes, issues and events in American history since 1865, students will develop critical reading, writing, and thinking skills. Students will come out of the course with a broader understanding of the United States’ place within a global context, the nations’ diversity and the significance to their own lives.

Required Texts:

Course Requirements:
Movie Analysis: You will need to write a 1 and ½ to 2-page analysis of a movie dealing with any topic in American history since 1865. After a short introduction (3 sentences or less) and summary of the movie, the paper should concentrate on the film’s strengths or weaknesses. Was it accurate? Why or why not? The paper needs an introduction, argument with supporting evidence and a conclusion. Movie suggestions include (but are certainly not limited to): Fruitvale Station, A Night to Remember, The Miracle Worker, Argo, Moonlight, Detroit, Zero Dark Thirty, Inherit the Wind, Boogie Nights, Longtime Companion, The Butler, 54, Kill Your Darlings, The Monuments Men, Matewan, Tora! Tora! Tora!, Malcolm X, Ghosts of Mississippi, Silkwood, The People vs. Larry Flynt, Friday Night Lights, Sid & Nancy, Sweet Dreams, Moneyball, Fruitvale Station, Stonewall, Norma Rae, All the President’s Men, Wonderland, Milk, Apollo 13, Taking Woodstock, Dallas Buyers Club, CBGB, or W. Movies
HIST 2112 Assessment Essay Assignment:
What is required: An essay that is at least 2-3 pages long that summarizes your understanding of a key theme in this course

Purpose for assignment: As part of the general education of every UWG student, this course aims to teach students to understand the political, social, economic, or cultural dimensions of world or American history. The purpose of this assignment, in part, is to measure the extent to which students in all sections of this course have learned what we have been trying to teach. We will collect and analyze essays from all sections in order to find ways to help future students learn this material more fully.

Essay question: As you reflect back on the things you have learned about the development of the United States from 1865 to the present, what do you think was one of the most important political, social, economic, or cultural developments during this long time period? Explain how and why this development emerged, how it changed (or didn’t change) over time, and how it shaped the development of the United States. Please organize your essay chronologically, but with a clear thesis statement and arguments supported with evidence from specific facts and concepts that you learned in this course. You must use at least 3 outside sources. Your essay should be at least 2-3 pages long – though feel free to write a longer essay if you would like. (Due in class April 1).

Exams: There will be three non-cumulative exams given in the course. These exams will be a mix of short identifications and essay questions. You will need to bring your own blue books which can be purchased throughout campus. Write exam in PEN ONLY. (Exams scheduled for Feb. 12, March 11, and a final on Mon. May 4 from 2-4pm).

Class Participation and Attendance: This will determine a substantial portion of your grade and includes both attendance and participation in class discussions. More than 5 unexcused absences will result in a 0 for this portion of your grade.

Extra Credit: You may write a short (1 ½ - 2 pages) review of a visit during the semester to a history museum, exhibit or site for extra credit. This needs to be a critical essay. Did the site or exhibit seem to have an overall theme or message? Were there historical inaccuracies? What was done well and what was done poorly? Suggested sites include the Atlanta History Center, Historic Banning Mills (in Whitesburg, Ga.), Jimmy Carter Presidential Library and Museum, Martin Luther King, Jr. National Historic Site, Margaret Mitchell House and Museum, Pickett’s Mill, Douglas County Museum of History and Art and Roosevelt’s Little White House Historic Site, and the Thomas B. Murphy office museum installation (ground floor of UWG's Ingram Library; this exhibit is viewable any hours that the library is open). Due anytime through end of semester.

Grading:
Movie Review: 15%
Second Essay: 25%
Exam 1: 15%
Exam 2: 15%
Final Exam 20%
Participation: 10%
Extra Credit: up to 5%

Grading Scale:
90% +  A
80% +  B
70% +  C
60% +  D
59% -  F
Writing Assistance: This course has several writing assignments constituting 40% of your possible grade. If you are struggling (writing does not come easily to most people) seek help sooner rather than later. Suggestions include:

- The UWG Library website (includes citation and style guides, as well as important history databases such as America: History & Life)
- The Writing Center (TLC 1201)
- Peers (having another pair of eyes proof your work is always a good idea)
- Class Instructor (I am happy to give any help that I can)

Class Rules:

- Turn cell phones off during class; this is common courtesy
- No food in class, beverages are fine
- Attendance is expected, and please be on time
- This is an academic environment, show respect for others
- Academic honesty is expected. Do not submit the work of others as your own. Plagiarism is a serious academic offense and is not tolerated at this university. For details see the Student Handbook, appendix A and the history department statement on plagiarism: http://www.westga.edu/~history/statementonplagiarism.pdf

Tentative Course Outline:

Week 1 (Jan. 6-9): Course Introduction; Reconstruction
  Read: Chapter 15

Week 2 (Jan. 13-16): Reconstruction; The West
  Read: chapter 16

Week 3 (Jan. 21-23; no class 20th): Industrialization
  Read: chapter 17
  (1st paper due Jan. 22 in class)

Week 4 (Jan. 27-30): Urbanization/Gilded Age
  Read: chapter 18, 19

Week 5 (Feb. 3-6): Progressivism
  Read: chapter 20; two documents on CourseDen (Washington & DuBois)

Week 6 (Feb. 10-13): American Empire/WWI
  Read: chapters 21
  Exam 1: Feb. 12

Week 7 (Feb. 17-20): Modernization & the Great Depression/ Roosevelt and the New Deal
  Read: chapters 22, 23, 24

Week 8 (Feb. 24-27): World War II
Read: chapter 25, 26

Week 9 (March 2-5): World War Two/Cold War
Read: chapter 27; Online document “Executive Order 9066.”

Week 10 (March 9-12): Cold War/ American Affluence
Read: Chapter 28
Exam 2: March 11

Week 11 (March 16-19): SPRING BREAK!

Week 12 (March 23-26): The Sixties/Civil Rights
Read: chapter 29

Week 13 (March 30-April 2): Civil Rights
Read: chapter 30; Documents posted on CourseDen
(2nd paper due in class April 1)

Week 14 (April 6-9) The 1970s and Rise of the Right
Read: chapter 31 (first half of chapter)

Week 15 (April 13-16): From Reagan to Obama
Read: chapters 31 (rest of chapter)

Week 16: (April 20-23): From Reagan to Obama, cont.
Read: Chapter 32

Week 17 (April 27): “Catch-up” day

Final Exam: Monday May 4, from 2-4pm

Additional information on:

Americans with Disabilities Act
UWG Email Policy
University of West Georgia Honor Code
Credit Hour Policy

http://www.westga.edu/assetsDept/vpaa/Common_Language_for_Course_Syllabi.pdf