Learning Aims and Outcomes

This readings class is designed to provide you with a foundation in the history and historiography of Napoleonic Germany. If successfully completed, you

• will demonstrate knowledge of the main events, ideas, and figures of the period.
• will demonstrate knowledge of some of the major historians studying the time and central historiographical debates.
• will demonstrate improved abilities in communication, both oral and written.

Grading

Your grade for this course will be factored as follows:

• Weekly discussion of readings 75%
• 10 Page Historiography Paper 25%

Reading List

I. General Histories of Germany to Unification:

II. General Surveys of European Politics and Napoleon’s Impact:

Stuart Woolf, Napoleon’s Integration of Europe (Routledge, 2015).

III. Particular Studies of Germany and the Revolutionary and Napoleonic Eras

