WOLF PACT

Protecting the integrity of a degree from the Richards College of Business at the University of West Georgia is the responsibility of the administration, faculty, staff, and students of the college. Our mission is “To become a globally recognized college of business preparing forward-thinking, responsible leaders.” Responsible leaders are ethical leaders, and this behavior begins in the classroom. One of our Strategic Goals is to demonstrate “…commitment to the principles of honesty and integrity in interactions and undertakings, [and] accountability for personal behavior…”. As such, we have developed the Wolf Pact in an effort to promote and maintain the highest standards of integrity, professional behavior, ethical actions, and personal conduct.

The purpose of this pact is to maintain that a degree from the Richards College of Business at the University of West Georgia is held in high regard by all internal and external constituents, and that a degree from the University of West Georgia is as meaningful in the future as it is today.

I have reviewed the information in this syllabus, and I agree to abide by the policies stated. I will conduct myself in accordance with the RCOB Wolf Pact to protect the integrity of my degree and all those others who receive a degree from the Richards College.

3. Be able to successfully use retail tools: Retailing pricing practices and merchandising planning and ordering. (MG 2)
4. Understand the basic dimensions of retailing. (MG 1)
5. Have an understanding of retail administration. (MG 1)
6. Understand how various factors influence consumer behavior and expenditure patterns. (MG 1)
7. Understand what ethical and moral issues there are to be confronted. (LG 5)

TEXTBOOKS AND MATERIALS

TEXTBOOKS

COURSE MATERIALS
This required text can be purchased new for under $18.00. Electronic versions are also acceptable.

COURSE POLICIES

Lecture: Lectures will cover specific topics in retail management. The course schedule lists specific topics covered on each class date along with referenced book chapters. Note: There will be material covered in class that cannot be found in your book! I also reserve the right to change the order of material presented. Material may be subject to change.

1. Attend class, prepared to discuss and apply concepts from assigned readings. This includes having the text, handouts, and other materials readily available and well organized for class.

2. Be responsible for the readings assigned in class and in the course syllabus, whether or not the material is explicitly covered by the instructor during class. Important information will be found in CourseDen, especially in the News/Announcement section. It is IMPORTANT to check this at least once a day. You will find articles to read and other important information.

3. Contribute to class discussions.

4. Turn in or meet all assignments on schedule. Make sure to consult schedule often. (Additional attachment)

5. Any student who misses class (or any portion of a class) is responsible for the content missed. While I am glad to assist students who may need help with a particular concept or assignment, such assistance is not designed to replace class time. Any student who misses class should take steps to get notes, assignments, copies of handouts, class schedule changes, etc. from another student(s). If additional assistance is needed, please see me during office hours. Class time is valuable and will not be used to go over material for students missing class. Class material will only be retaught/reviewed when it is judged appropriate for the class as a whole.

6. Always Engage in Academic Honesty: Students are expected to recognize and uphold standards of intellectual and academic integrity. The University assumes as a basic and minimum standard of conduct in academic matters that students be honest and that they present for credit only the results of their own efforts. Students should be familiar with the University’s policy on issues such as:

- Plagiarism,
- Cheating on Examinations,
- Unauthorized Collaboration,
- Falsification,
- Multiple Submissions. It will be considered an act of academic dishonesty for a student to submit work done in any other class for credit toward the completion of this course.

Failure to comply with these standards will result in a zero for that portion of the grade, as a minimum sanction. Lack of knowledge of this policy is not an acceptable defense to any academic dishonesty charge.

7. Adhere to University Policies: It is your responsibility to be aware and follow all guidelines and policies as presented in the University Bulletin. This includes and is not limited to the “Campus Carry Legislation: HB280”. Updated information can be found: www.usg.edu/hb280

8. Recognize that in addition to reading from the text and assigned readings, everything presented in class by the instructor, guest speakers or other students will be considered for inclusion on quizzes/exams.

9. Professional behavior is expected in the classroom. We follow the WOLF PACT. All students are expected to treat each other, the instructor, and guests with courtesy at all times. Side conversations are disruptive and inappropriate whether the instructor or another student is speaking. Comments regarding course difficulty, class dismissal time, etc. are also inappropriate. Talk to the instructor privately if you have a concern.

10. Being on time: Class starts at 9:30 AM, which means that you need to be in your seat by 9:30 AM. If you are late to class—you will miss valuable information. On the days we have guest speakers—if you are late, you will not be allowed into class since it is disruptive and you will be considered absent. If you are absent, you will not be able to complete your reflection. Additionally, cell phone use is not allowed during class.

11. Student Rights and Responsibilities: Please carefully review the information at the following link: http://www.westga.edu/assetsDept/vpaa/Common_Language_for_Course_Syllabi.pdf The document at this link contains important information pertaining to your rights and responsibilities in this class. Because these statements are updated as federal, state, university, and accreditation standards change, you should review the information each semester.

12. Credit Hour Policy (3 credit hours): For approximately fifteen weeks, students in this class will generally spend 150 minutes with direct faculty instruction (either face-to-face or online) and work about 360 minutes outside of the classroom each week. This out-of-class work may include, but is not limited to, readings, assignments, projects, group work, research, and test preparation.
ASSIGNMENTS

1. Exams: No exams.

2. Quizzes: There will be 3 quizzes. The quizzes cannot be made up; NO EXCEPTIONS. If you are late on quiz day, you will not be given more time to take the quiz, and you may lose 20 points for being late.

3. Research and Reflections: There will be 8 assignments due during the semester.

4. Team Work and Team Assignment: This is a semester based project. Please see the rubric for how the work will be graded. This is a key component to the class and the expectation is that each group member puts in an equal amount of work and dedication towards this project. Mandatory Presentation Days – outlined in your class schedule- are just that... mandatory. If you do not attend, you will receive a zero. If you are late (for any reason) your project grade will be lowered by 20 points. Again, check CourseDen often in the News Section for important/up to date information.

5. Late assignments will not be taken unless:

   - there is an emergency which the student discusses with me BEFORE missing the assignment and
   - documentation of the emergency situation is provided. Students not abiding by these policies will receive a zero.

Absences: Students missing more than 3 classes may be administratively withdrawn from the course by the instructor for excess absences. Administrative withdrawals follow the same grading guidelines outlined in the registration bulletin. Since this is a hybrid class, if you have 3 or more unexcused absences your final grade will be lowered by 1 letter grade. Any documentation for absences must be emailed to me as soon as possible (preferably before the day you will miss) or provided to me by the next class you attend after the absence.

Grading

Your grade will be based on class participation/homework assignments/quizzes and a final group project. I open up grades in CourseDen, so that you can see what your running average is. I WILL NOT calculate your grades for you. It is your responsibility. I will not answer questions, such as: “What do I need to make on my group project in order to get an A in class.” Or “what is my current grade?”

NOTE: If you miss 3 or more classes your final grade will be lowered by one letter grade. Class participation is a major factor in this class.

Research/Reflections- 40%
Quizzes (3)- 20%
Team Work and Team Assignment- 40%

A- 90-100
B- 80-89
C- 70-79
