WOLF PACT

Protecting the integrity of a degree from the Richards College of Business at the University of West Georgia is the responsibility of the administration, faculty, staff, and students of the college. Our mission is “To become a globally recognized college of business preparing forward-thinking, responsible leaders.” Responsible leaders are ethical leaders, and this behavior begins in the classroom. One of our Strategic Goals is to demonstrate “…commitment to the principles of honesty and integrity in interactions and undertakings, [and] accountability for personal behavior…”. As such, we have developed the Wolf Pact in an effort to promote and maintain the highest standards of integrity, professional behavior, ethical actions, and personal conduct.

The purpose of this pact is to maintain that a degree from the Richards College of Business at the University of West Georgia is held in high regard by all internal and external constituents, and that a degree from the University of West Georgia is as meaningful in the future as it is today.

I have reviewed the information in this syllabus, and I agree to abide by the policies stated. I will conduct myself in accordance with the RCOB Wolf Pact to protect the integrity of my degree and all those others who receive a degree from the Richards College.

ASSIGNMENTS

Syllabus quiz and assessing your learning

Syllabus quiz is a mandatory quiz. You have to take it during the first week of classes and you have to receive 10/10 in order to continue in the class. You have two attempts. In the first week of classes, you will assess your own learning and studying strength and weaknesses.
Chapter quizzes

You have 30 minutes to complete each quiz. Quizzes are open 1-2 weeks.

Assignments (5+1)

There are six assignments in this course and one of them is not a graded assignment (you can earn extra credit point by completing it). One of the graded assignments is to interview someone working in b2b Sales or Marketing.

Article presentation

You will create a case presentation in the randomly assigned virtual teams. Guidelines are located in CourseDen in the Orientation module. Some questions from the presentations will be selected for the final exam.
