- Transcription Assignments: Two transcription assignments will be given throughout the semester where you are provided a recording to transcribe without the assistance of an instrument or musical score. (100pts each)

- Sight-Singing Exams: Three sight-reading exams will be administered. You will sign up for a time slot in class one week before the exam. If you miss your time slot without a written, valid excuse, you may not make-up the exam. (100 points each)

- Class Participation and In-class Assignments: We will work actively for a portion of every class on ear training, sight-singing and dictation techniques. Your participation will be evaluated on a score of 0-7 for each of those days and that will comprise your class participation grade. ### Course Policies and Resources

1. Common Courtesy: Please practice common courtesy and respect. We are all works in progress!

2. Attendance: Building individual and group musicianship is vitally important, therefore attendance is mandatory; excused absences will be evaluated by the instructor on a case-by-case basis. Be sure to communicate regarding absences and lateness. Attendance is taken at the beginning of each class, and latecomers need to speak to the instructor after class if they expect to be marked present for the day. Remember that you are given 7pts/day for class participation. If you are absent or arrive 15 minutes or more after class has started, you may not receive those points!

3. Observance of Religious Holidays: Students may miss class to observe religious holidays that fall under the following circumstances:
   - Students must notify the instructor in writing during the first 3 weeks of the semester.
   - Submit any possible make-up work by the assigned due date or it will not be accepted.

4. Late Work: Assignments must be turned in on time. Work that is submitted after that time, but within 24 hours will be deducted 10% of the total possible points for that assignment. Each 24 hours after the due date that passes before work is submitted will drop the grade by a further 10%. Work more than 10 days overdue will not be accepted and will be submitted as a 0. If extreme circumstances prevent you from submitting an assignment on time, contact the instructor as soon as possible to make alternate arrangements for turning in your work.

5. Make-up Exams: Make-up exams will not be offered except under extreme, documented circumstances. If you are unable to attend an exam, you must contact me by 9:15a.m. on the day of the exam or you will not be allowed to make it up. You will only be allowed one make-up exam during the course of the term, and only if you provide sufficient documentation to warrant make-up. In class grades cannot be made up.

6. Cell Phone Policy: Use of cell phones and laptops is NOT allowed in the classroom. They provide more of a distraction than a benefit to learning, so respect me and those around you, and do not use them.

Honor Code

At the University of West Georgia, we believe that academic and personal integrity are based upon honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Students at West Georgia assume responsibility for upholding the honor code. West Georgia students pledge to refrain from engaging in acts that do not maintain academic and personal integrity. These include, but are not limited to, plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, aid of academic dishonesty, lying, bribery or threats, and stealing.

The University of West Georgia maintains and monitors a confidential Academic Dishonesty Tracking System. This database collects and reports patterns of repeated student violations across all the Colleges, the Ingram Library, and the School of Nursing. Each incidence of academic dishonesty is subject to review and consideration by the instructor, and is subject to a range of academic penalties including, but not limited to, failing the assignment and/or failing the course. Student conduct sanctions range from verbal warning to suspension or expulsion depending on the magnitude of the offense and/or number of offenses. The incident becomes part of the student’s conduct record at UWG.

Additionally, the student is responsible for safeguarding his/her computer account. The student’s account and network connection are for his/her individual use. A computer account is to be used only by the person to whom it has been issued. The student is responsible for all actions originating through his/her account or network connection. Students must not impersonate others or misrepresent or conceal their identities in electronic messages and actions. For more information on the University of West Georgia Honor Code, please see the Student Handbook.

UWG Email Policy

University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG e-mail account. The University considers this account to be an official means of communication between the University and the student. The purpose of the official use of the student e-mail account is to provide an effective means of communicating important university related information to UWG students in a timely manner. It is the student’s responsibility to check his or her email.

Credit Hour Policy

The University of West Georgia grants one semester hour of credit for work equivalent to a minimum of one hour (50 minutes) of in-class or other direct faculty instruction AND two hours of student work outside of class per week for approximately fifteen weeks. For each course, the course syllabus will document the amount of in-class (or other direct faculty instruction) and out-of-class work required to earn the credit hour(s) assigned to the course. Out-of-class work will include all forms of credit-bearing activity, including but not limited to assignments, readings, observations, and musical practice. Where available, the university grants academic credit for students who verify via competency-based testing, that they have accomplished the learning outcomes associated with a course that would normally meet the requirements outlined above (e.g. AP credit, CLEP, and departmental exams).
