Grading:

1. Evaluation will be based on individual daily preparation, active class participation, performance, focus and consistency in rehearsal and professionalism. Please bring all equipment to each rehearsal. The use of cell phones during rehearsals will not be tolerated.
2. Attendance is required at all rehearsals and performances.
 - Rehearsal absences may result in a letter grade drop
 - Tardiness to a performance (i.e. missing the first piece) drops your grade by a letter
 - Missing a performance entirely (or a substantial portion) may result in a failing grade
3. Two tardies=1 absence (tardy goes into effect at 3:00 once tuning begins).
4. Sectionals may be called by the conductor or principal players as needed.
5. Note: students are responsible for managing their personal schedules; any events scheduled by family members will not be considered excused.
6. Emergencies and illness will be excused on an individual basis with the conductor (Please contact Dr. Byrd via e-mail as soon as possible; doctor’s notes are required).
7. Requests to miss rehearsal due to performance/audition conflict must be sent to Dr. Byrd at least two weeks in advance of the absence. There is a limit of two excused absences per semester (barring special circumstances).
8. Any excused absence must be made up through the electronic submission of pieces/excerpts rehearsed for that day (send mp3/m4a via email, DropBox, etc.)

Concert Attire:

MEN: Black tuxedo, tux shirt, medium width black bow tie, dress shoes, black socks.

WOMEN: Black pantsuit with black blouse or floor length black dress with full-length sleeves and conservative neckline (black socks/hose, black shoes, simple jewelry and hair accessories).
