CULTURE AND PSYCHOLOGY- PSYC 4350 (E02)

Spring 2019

Instructor: Dr. Ayurdhi Dhar

Email: adhar@westga.edu

Office Hours: Melson Hall, Front campus drive: Room 117
M/W: 11 AM-12.30PM; 2 PM-3.00 PM; 4 PM-5 PM

While these are the office hours, please schedule appointments with me individually. I reserve the right to change these hours.

Important: Check your Courseden at least twice a week for announcements. This is the only way I can stay in touch with you and let you know about any changes in dates or addition of lectures and other course material. It is your responsibility to read the announcements. If there is something super important, I will also send an email.

Text:
Cultural Psychology, 3rd Ed. By Steven J. Heine

Some material, including research papers, academic articles, videos, and chapters will be provided via Courseden. Accustom yourself with Courseden and if confused, seek help.

Audio lectures will be added on occasion to help comprehend difficult concepts in the text.

Course Description and Objectives: Psychology is undergoing a replication crisis, and faulty research methodology is only partially responsible for this. This course is designed to introduce you to a cultural perspective in psychology. Most of what you have learned up until now is based on research and academic work done in a few Western countries. This course will help you realize that as our culture changes, so does the way we think, feel, and behave. It is essential to understand these differences if you want to operate as a psychologist in a world that is increasingly more inter-connected. Plus, once you see how things are done, thought about, and felt differently across the world, you will be able to constructively critique your own way of doing things in order provide better theories and interventions at home!

Timeline:
This is simple. We have 15 weeks of classes (not including spring break of course) and 14 chapters in the book. You should be reading a chapter a week along with other additional material that is added on courseden. That said, this is an online class so if you want to read all required material the week before a test, that is fine too. But research has shown that learning that is spaced/distributed produces better results than learning that is massed. Just saying!
Course Requirements and Grades:

2 Group Discussions: 20 points total. The class will be divided into five groups and discussions will be opened for 8 days at a time. You will be contributing with your input on coursesden discussion boards specifically allocated to your group. More on this in the “Group discussion” file.

2 Class Tests: 40 points (20 each) Twice in the semester, you will have two small tests of the MCQ variety or short answer type.

Final Paper: 40 points. A final paper on the topic of your choice is to be submitted by finals week. I am not super strict about the deadline so just do it before finals week ends. More about the paper on the “Final Paper” file.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Accessibility Services: Students with a documented disability may work with UWG Accessibility Services to receive essential services specific to their disability. All entitlements to accommodations are based on documentation and USG Board of Regents standards. If a student needs course adaptations or accommodations because of a disability or chronic illness, or if he/she needs to make special arrangements in case the building must be evacuated, the student should notify his/her instructor in writing and provide a copy of his/her Student Accommodations Report (SAR), which is available only from Accessibility Services. Faculty cannot offer accommodations without timely receipt of the SAR; further, no retroactive accommodations will be given. For more information, please contact Accessibility Services.

Center for Academic Success: The Center for Academic Success provides services, programs, and opportunities to help all undergraduate students succeed academically. For more information, contact them: 678-839-6280 or cas@westga.edu

University Writing Center: The University Writing Center assists students with all areas of the writing process. For more information, contact them: 678-839-6513 or writing@westga.edu

ONLINE COURSES
UWG takes students’ privacy concerns seriously: technology-enhanced and partially and fully online courses use sites and entities beyond UWG and students have the right to know the privacy policies of these entities. For more information on privacy and accessibility for the most commonly used sites, as well as technology requirements visit the UWG Online site.

Students enrolled in online courses can find answers to many of their questions in the Online/Off-Campus Student Guide.

If a student is experiencing distress and needs help, please see the resources available at the UWG Cares site. Online counseling is also available for online students.

HONOR CODE
At the University of West Georgia, we believe that academic and personal integrity are based upon honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Students at West Georgia assume responsibility for upholding the honor code. West Georgia students pledge to refrain from engaging in acts that do not maintain academic and personal integrity. These include, but are not limited to, plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, aid of academic dishonesty, lying, bribery or threats, and stealing.
The University of West Georgia maintains and monitors a confidential Academic Dishonesty Tracking System. This database collects and reports patterns of repeated student violations across all the Colleges, the Ingram Library, and the School of Nursing. Each incidence of academic dishonesty is subject to review and consideration by the instructor, and is subject to a range of academic penalties including, but not limited to, failing the assignment and/or failing the course. Student conduct sanctions range from verbal warning to suspension or expulsion depending on the magnitude of the offense and/or number of offenses. The incident becomes part of the student’s conduct record at UWG.

Additionally, the student is responsible for safeguarding his/her computer account. The student’s account and network connection are for his/her individual use. A computer account is to be used only by the person to whom it has been issued. The student is responsible for all actions originating through his/her account or network connection. Students must not impersonate others or misrepresent or conceal their identities in electronic messages and actions. For more information on the University of West Georgia Honor Code, please see the Student Handbook.

UWG EMAIL POLICY
University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG e-mail account. The University considers this account to be an official means of communication between the University and the student. The purpose of the official use of the student e-mail account is to provide an effective means of communicating important university related information to UWG students in a timely manner. It is the student’s responsibility to check his or her email.

CREDIT HOUR POLICY
The University of West Georgia grants one semester hour of credit for work equivalent to a minimum of one hour (50 minutes) of in-class or other direct faculty instruction AND two hours of student work outside of class per week for approximately fifteen weeks. For each course, the course syllabus will document the amount of in-class (or other direct faculty instruction) and out-of-class work required to earn the credit hour(s) assigned to the course. Out-of-class work will include all forms of credit-bearing activity, including but not limited to assignments, readings, observations, and musical practice. Where available, the university grants academic credit for students who verify via competency-based testing, that they have accomplished the learning outcomes associated with a course that would normally meet the requirements outlined above (e.g. AP credit, CLEP, and departmental exams).

HB 280 (Campus Carry)

Mental Health Support:

If you or another student find that you are experiencing a mental health issue, free confidential services are available on campus in the Counseling Center. Students who have experienced sexual or domestic violence may receive confidential medical and advocacy services with the Patient Advocates in Health Services. To report a concern anonymously, please go to UWGcares.
