University of West Georgia Department of Sociology's Principle on Academic Integrity: In this course, students are expected to abide by the department of sociology's academic integrity principle. The department states that "the presence of academic dishonesty in particular frustrates the effort to create and sustain an academic culture and community that nurtures student growth and development." It is also against any form of academic dishonesty as it states that "integrity [] should characterize communities both within academia and without [it], is corrupted by the threat of untruthfulness, deceit, and fraud." In this course, we will all live up to the department's principle on academic integrity. You must abide by the principles stated in the UWG's Academic Honor Code, which stands against cheating, plagiarism, and academic dishonesty and lack of integrity. For more information on this, see the UWG Student Handbook: https://www.westga.edu/administration/vpsa/ocs/assets/docs/2016_2017_UWG_Student_Planner.pdf.

Dishonesty on Assignments: Any submitted assignments with plagiarism and/or copying of textbook authors' or classmates words will be graded an automatic zero. There is no exception.
