XIDS Course Description:

Learning outcome:
“Students will demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental concepts of a discipline examining the social world.”

Fundamental concepts of interdisciplinary studies
1. Academic disciplines are defined by their assumptions, concepts, modes of inquiry, theories, methods, worldviews.
2. Complex problems—those that cannot be fully addressed within a single discipline—require an approach that draws from multiple relevant disciplines.
3. Disciplines produce specific insights about a particular complex problem through the application of their defining assumptions, concepts, theories, and techniques.

What does it mean to demonstrate knowledge of the fundamental concepts of interdisciplinary studies and its examination of the social world?

1. Accurate understanding of two or more disciplines and what distinguishes or defines them as branches of knowledge production.
2. Accurately identify and explain the relevance of two or more disciplines to a particular complex problem or issue
3. Accurate application of the defining assumptions, concepts, theories, or techniques, etc. of two or more disciplines when considering a complex problem or issue.

Assignments
- Research Paper: You will have an end-of-term research paper on the course theme of “happily-ever-after.” More details will be provided on your assignment sheet.
- Participation and Participation Policy: In order for this to be an effective learning environment, all of you must participate to some extent. Understandably, some of you will participate in class less than others and that is fine as long as you are participating in some capacity.
- Response Papers: With each unit (there are four units), you will write a 2-3 page response paper on the question provided to you. These are less formal papers, but should be thoughtful.

Grading
All assignments must be completed in order to pass this course.

Statement of Communication
Communication in an online class takes special consideration.
- Be sensitive and reflective to what others are saying.
- Don't use all caps. It is the equivalent of screaming.
- No outbursts of extreme emotion or opinion.
- Think before you hit the post (enter/reply) button.
- Don't use offensive language.
- Use clear subject lines.
- Don't use abbreviations or acronyms unless the entire class knows them.
- Be forgiving. Anyone can make a mistake.
- Keep the dialogue collegial and professional.
Course policies

Meeting with me in my office:
I am always happy and open to meeting with students in my office. However, I require that if you wish to meet with me, you make an appointment. This allows both of us to schedule adequate time to address your needs and it ensures that our time is not wasted in waiting, either. If you fail to show up to an appointment that you made with me without sending me notification (via email, voicemail, etc), I will no longer allow you to make appointments to meet with me outside of class or the Writing Center. Time is a precious commodity of both college students and your instructor.

Late Work and Make-up Work Policy: All assignments are due at the beginning of class or by the time noted on the syllabus/assignment sheet. Late work is unacceptable. I will consider granting an extension only if you contact me 24 hours before the time that the assignment is due. If you have to miss the midterm or final exam, you must contact me before the exam to arrange a make-up date; otherwise, you will be granted a zero for the exam. Daily Grades and in-class activities cannot be made up. Emailed work will not be accepted unless there is a problem with CourseDen AND you send the work BEFORE the deadline.

A Note on CourseDen: If you have problems uploading an assignment to CourseDen, you should email the work to me as an attachment via MyUWG before the deadline. Do not wait until class or to get a response to an e-mail inquiry—be proactive!

Revision Policy: You will have the opportunity to revise one paper for a better grade. The final paper is exempt from this opportunity. Please take the drafting process and the workshops seriously.

Format for All Papers: The Department expects that students learn to cite sources accurately in the MLA style for documentation. Additionally, all hard copies should be typed and stapled. Work that does not meet these requirements will not receive credit.

Extra Credit: Extra credit is not offered for this course.

Recycled Papers: Submitting work that was completed for another course is unacceptable.

Common Language for Course Syllabi
Students should review the following information each semester, because these statements are updated as federal, state, university, and accreditation standards change: https://www.westga.edu/administration/vpaa/assets/docs/faculty-resources/common_language_for_course_syllabi_v2.pdf

Credit Hour Policy
The University of West Georgia grants one semester hour of credit for work equivalent to a minimum of one hour (50 minutes) of in-class or other direct faculty instruction AND two hours of student work outside of class per week for approximately fifteen weeks. For each course, the course syllabus will document the amount of in-class (or other direct faculty instruction) and out-of-class work required to earn the credit hour(s) assigned to the course. Out-of-class work will include all forms of credit-bearing activity, including but not limited to assignments, readings, observations, and musical practice. Where available, the university grants academic credit for students who verify via competency-based testing, that they have accomplished the learning outcomes associated with a course that would normally meet the requirements outlined above (e.g. AP credit, CLEP, and departmental exams).

Department Paperless Policy: As of Fall 2006, the English Department has implemented a “paperless” policy in its classrooms. Therefore, all materials (handouts, assignment sheets, notes, etc.) will be made available online. Students may print these necessary course documents, including the syllabus, on their home computers.

Plagiarism and Excessive Collaboration (If a student violates this policy, he or she may receive an F for the assignment or an F for the course, at my discretion):

Plagiarism & Academic Dishonesty
The Department of English and Philosophy defines plagiarism as taking personal credit for the words and ideas of others as they are presented in electronic, print, and verbal sources. The Department expects that students will accurately credit sources in all assignments. An equally dishonest practice is fabricating sources or facts; it is another form of misrepresenting the truth. Plagiarism is grounds for failing the course. See also, excessive collaboration.

The University policies for handling Academic Dishonesty are found in the following documents:

- The Faculty Handbook, sections 207 and 208.0401
  http://www.westga.edu/~vpaa/handrev/
- Student Uncatalog: "Rights and Responsibilities"; Appendix J.

Excessive Collaboration
By the end of the term in both ENGL 1101 and 1102, students should demonstrate the ability to produce independent writing (writing without collaborative assistance of peers, writing tutors, or professionals in the field) that shows an acceptable level of competence. Although classroom activities and out-of-class assignments may highlight collaborative learning and collaborative research, excessive collaboration (collaboration that results in the loss of a student's voice/style and original claims to course-related work) is considered another form of academic dishonesty and therefore will not be permitted.

University of West Georgia Honor Code: At the University of West Georgia, we believe that academic and personal integrity are based upon honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. Students at West Georgia assume responsibility for upholding the honor code.
West Georgia students pledge to refrain from engaging in acts that do not maintain academic and personal integrity. These include, but are not limited to, plagiarism, cheating, fabrication, aid of academic dishonesty, lying, bribery or threats, and stealing. The University of West Georgia maintains and monitors a confidential Academic Dishonesty Tracking System. This database collects and reports patterns of repeated student violations across all the Colleges, the Ingram Library, and the School of Nursing. Updated April 19, 2013.

Additionally, you are responsible for safeguarding your computer account. Your account and network connection are for your individual use. A computer account is to be used only by the person to whom it has been issued. You are responsible for all actions originating through your account or network connection. You must not impersonate others or misrepresent or conceal your identity in electronic messages and actions.

HB 280 (Campus Carry): UWG follows University System of Georgia (USG) guidance: http://www.usg.edu/hb280/additional_information# You may also visit our website for help with USG Guidance: https://www.westga.edu/police/campus-carry.php

Attendance: It is imperative that you attend class regularly in order to succeed, as essay topics come straight from our class discussion. You are allowed four absences over the course of the semester; all absences count, regardless of your reason for missing class, so there is no need to explain absences or provide a doctor’s note. Upon the student’s fifth absence, he or she will have two options: 1) withdraw from the class, which will generate a W if done before Wednesday, October 9th—or a WF if after that deadline; or 2) remain on the roll (still attending classes, if so desired) and be penalized 2 points, per every absence thereafter, from the final grade. Do be aware that there are absolutely no exceptions to the attendance policy.

Note: Attendance will be taken at the beginning of class. Absence records cannot be disputed after the fact, so please, be sure to see me if you arrive late. Late arrivals count as 1/2 of an absence; if you arrive late (after we have begun our quiz), you will not be allowed to take the quiz, even if we are still in the midst of it.

DROP / ADD: Students who wish to add or drop courses must do so during the scheduled Add and Drop periods. There is no Reinstatement period for students whose schedules are dropped. Registrar’s Super Calendar for Fall 2019 is here.

On Tues., January 20th, the Drop period (with refund) ENDS. After that date, there is NO dropping classes with a refund. The Add period ends the same day and no more courses can be added on or back.

The W Date: Students may withdraw from classes up before W and receive a “W.” This is the final withdrawal deadline. After this date, a student must seek a hardship withdrawal to withdraw from the class without a grade (initiated through Health Services or Counseling). It is required that students receive at least one major graded assignment back before 10/9/19 so that they can make a determination about withdrawal from your class.

Disruptive Behavior Policy: Students may be dismissed from any class meeting at which they exhibit behavior that disrupts the learning environment of others. Such behavior includes – but is not limited to – arriving late for class, allowing cell phones to ring, speaking disrespectfully to the instructor and/or to other students, checking email or surfing the web, and using personal audio or visual devices. Each dismissal of this kind will count as an absence and will be applied toward the attendance policy above. (Department Policy)

Email Policy
UWG Email Policy: University of West Georgia students are provided a MyUWG e-mail account. The University considers this account to be an official means of communication between the University and the student. The purpose of the official use of the student e-mail account is to provide an effective means of communicating important university related information to UWG students in a timely manner. It is the student’s responsibility to check his or her email.

Course-specific Notes on Email: All emails must be sent through campus email. In other words, always use your myUWG or your CourseDen account to contact me by e-mail. Generally, I will answer emails between 9 am and 5 pm on weekdays; emails that come in after 5 pm on weekdays will be answered within 24 hours. Emails sent over the weekend will be answered Monday morning. While I usually respond to emails quickly, email should not be used to contact me in matters of extreme urgency.

Please make sure that your emails are professional. This means that you use proper English, check your emails for mistakes in grammar and spelling, and include all pertinent information, including your name and section number. Text message abbreviations are not appropriate outside of sending an actual text.

Americans with Disabilities Act Statement:
If you are a student who is disabled as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act and require assistance or support services, please seek assistance through the Center for Disability. UWG also provides Accessibility Statements for Technology that you may be required to use for this course.

For more information on the Americans with Disabilities Act, UWG Email, Credit Hour, and UWG Honor Code policies as well as information on Academic Tutoring, Student Services, and Technical Requirements, Privacy Policy, and Accessibility Statements, please see the Common Language for Syllabus document.
