RESEARCH POSITIONS

2015

Research Consultant

North Dakota Department of Health and North Dakota Higher Education Consortium for Substance Abuse Prevention (NDHECSAP)

Supervisor: Neil Charvat, Community Health Specialist, Chronic Disease Program
North Dakota Department of Health.

Quantitative data analyses of the ND Core drug and alcohol survey and Electronic Checkup-to-Go for each of the 11 NDUS institutions and at the aggregate level.

Compilation of reports and dissemination of results from the analyses to each institution and statewide.

2013-2014

Research and Data Consultant – Campus Tobacco Prevention Project

North Dakota Department of Health and North Dakota Higher Education Consortium for Substance Abuse Prevention (NDHECSAP)

Supervisor: Neil Charvat, Community Health Specialist, Chronic Disease Program
North Dakota Department of Health.

Analyzed tobacco-specific data from North Dakota college campuses and compiled campus-specific and aggregate-level reports. Co-authored an online educational and sanctioning tool for tobacco use at the college level, “e-smoke.”

- 2012-2013 Research Consultant
Parents LEAD Evaluation, North Dakota Department of Transportation,
NDSU Extension Services, North Dakota University System
Dr. Sharon Query (PI)
Pro bono data collection and analysis of the Parents LEAD Project, a ND Department of Transportation funded program that uses media venues (primarily through a website) to provide resources to parents regarding how to talk to their children about substance use. The evaluation component included conducting focus groups and administering surveys to determine the effectiveness of the Parents LEAD program.
- 2012-2013 Research Consultant (Independent Contractor)
North Dakota University System
Supervisor: Jane Vangsness Frisch, Director, ND Higher Education Consortium for Substance Abuse Prevention (NDHECSAP).
Quantitative and qualitative data analyses of various University System projects, including the ND Core drug and alcohol survey, substance-free late night events, and parent focus groups, among others. Disseminated results from the analyses statewide and at national research conferences.
- 2010-2012 Graduate Research Assistant
North Dakota University System, Project North Dakota Partners in Prevention (NDPIP)
Supervisor: Jane Vangsness Frisch, Director, ND Higher Education Consortium for Substance Abuse Prevention (NDHECSAP).
Assisted the Director with all aspects of the research project, including the evaluations of the ND Core drug and alcohol survey and substance-free late-night events. This included drawing stratified random samples of college students from 12 college campuses for the ND Core survey, data collection, data analysis, and dissemination of results to individual campuses, statewide, and the broader scientific community.
- 2009-2010 Program Evaluator
North Dakota State Epidemiological Outcomes Workgroup (SEOW)
North Dakota State University Dept. of Criminal Justice & Political Science
Dr. Kevin Thompson (PI), Ericka Wentz (Co-Investigator)
Assessed the effectiveness of the SEOW in pursuing their goal of reducing the prevalence of substance abuse in North Dakota through data-driven methods. Specific duties included the design, implementation, and data analysis of process and outcome evaluations in collaboration with North Dakota Department of Health and Human Services. Evaluations measured the progress of the workgroup as well as workgroup member perceptions of the overall efficacy of the group.
- 2006-2008 Research Assistant
North Dakota State University Department of Psychology
Dr. Clayton Hilmert and Dr. Linda Langley
Gathered qualitative and quantitative data from study participants between the ages of 18 and 90, coded data, and data input.

RELEVANT WORKPLACE EXPERIENCE

- 2012 Writer
SAGE Publications, Thousand Oaks, CA
Wrote the ancillaries to the book, Policing: A Text/Reader (2012), authored by Carol A. Archbold. This involved the preparation of test banks, PowerPoint slides, student web quizzes, journal articles, video links, and web resources for each chapter, as well as sample syllabi.
- 2012 Pre-Sentence Investigation Writer (Sex Offenders)
North Dakota Department of Corrections, Parole and Probation Office, Fargo
Supervisor: Barb Breiland, Sex Offender Program Manager
Collected, compiled, and disseminated case-specific information to assist judges in making sentencing decisions for sex offenders. This involved interviewing convicted sex offenders, reviewing various reports (i.e., police reports, victim impact statements, character statements, etc.) in order to formulate specific sentencing and program recommendations. Proficient in the administration of the LSI-R, MnSOST-R, Static 99-R, and STABLE-2007 assessment instruments.
- 2008-2009 Case Manager
North Dakota State University, Office of Student Life
Supervisor: Nona Wood, Associate Director of Student Rights
Case manager for the “Back on TRAC” program, which teaches students who have substance abuse problems techniques to help them abstain and seek alternatives to substance use so that they may successfully achieve their educational goals.
