

Nathan Numerator
Carrollton, GA
(987) 654-3210
nnumeral@my.westga.edu

Summary

Mathematics educator with two years of experience in tutoring, developing study plans, and problem solving. Ability to work with diverse clients and specialize lessons to their needs. Professional and creative with a passion for mathematical education.

Education

Bachelors of Science in Mathematics
University of West Georgia, Carrollton, GA

December 2015
GPA: 3.9

Relevant Coursework

Advanced Calculus
Number Theory

Mathematical Probability
Real Analysis

Complex Analysis
Differential Equations

Experience

Tutor

University of West Georgia Mathematics Department

August 2013 – December 2015

- Tutored up to 75 students a semester on Algebra, Calculus, Geometry, and Number Theory.
- Researched, developed, and implemented new educational techniques and styles to work with a diverse group of students and a range of different learning styles.
- Empowered students to personalize their study plans to increase understanding of class topics.
- Presented 10 workshops to groups of up to 20 students.
- Assisted professors during final examinations.

Student Assistant

University of West Georgia Registrar's Office

January 2013 – April 2013

- Provided excellent customer service in person, on the phone, and via email.
- Answered questions regarding registration dates and requirements.
- Entered student information and updates into Wolf Watch.

Server

LocoMex Downtown, Carrollton GA

April 2012 – January 2013

- Presented menu and nutritional information to customers.
- Offered daily specials and suggested dishes based on customer's interests.
- Collaborated with kitchen staff to provide correct orders to customers in a timely manner.