

Rand M. Speech
Carrollton, GA
770-123-4567
randmspeech@westga.edu

Summary

Highly motivated, enthusiastic, and dedicated educator who strives to ensure that all children are successful learners. Continually research education programs and procedures to benefit students while remaining committed to creating a classroom atmosphere that is stimulating and encouraging. Demonstrated ability to consistently individualize instruction, based on students' needs and interests with exceptional ability to establish cooperative, professional relationships with parents, staff and administration

Technical Skills

Microsoft Office	Print Shop	Quattro Pro
CAD	Desk Top Publishing	TCPM

Education

University of West Georgia Carrollton, GA
Bachelor of Science in Education: Speech Language Pathology (3.5 GPA) April 2016

- National Student Speech-Language and Hearing Association (NSSLHA)
- Operation Smile

Teaching Experience

William James Middle School Atlanta, GA
Severe Language Impaired Teacher January 2015-Present

- Teaches twelve severe language impaired students ages 9-12
- Works with students in all skill areas, constantly focusing on improving speech abilities
- Organizes students in instructional groups and work with other teachers to mainstream students
- Uses cooperative learning strategies to reinforce content material
- Participates in parent conferences and initiate special parent newsletter
- Completes all required paperwork including an IEP for each student

Sallie Zetterower Elementary School Atlanta, GA
Resource Teacher August 2013-August 2014

- Taught basic academic subjects to students requiring remedial work using computer-aided instruction and audio-visual aids
- Administered achievement tests and evaluated results to discover the level for individual students
- Conferred with school counselors and teaching staff to obtain additional information about each student's learning disabilities, behavior problems, and disorders
- Encouraged involvement by parents in the effort to enhance the student's motivation and learning rate

Volunteer Experience

Senator Jack Hill, 9th District, Carrollton, GA August 2013-Present

- Answer incoming calls and work closely with the media and press providing general candidate information
- Assist in writing letters to constituents responding to various issues and concerns
- Produce flyers for mailing to garner financial support for re-election

Leadership

Finance Chairmen: Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity 2015
Vice President: Student Government Association 2014