3. If you decide you want to interview this candidate, move his/her application to the “Approve for Interview” status using the drop down list on the orange “Take Action on Job Application” button.

4. After the interview if you like this candidate for your job, use the drop down list on the orange “Take Action on Job Application” button to move the candidate to “Finalist” status. If this student is not the right person for the job then you have the option to select “Interviewed, Not Selected.”

5. Once you have made your final decision, use the orange “Take Action on Job Application” button again to move the candidate to “Recommend for Hire – Begin Hiring Proposal.” You will now see “Start Student Hiring Proposal” in the list below the “Take Action on Job Application” button.

6. Click on “Start Student Hiring Proposal” to enter the rate of pay and the start date. It is not necessary to complete the other fields. Click on the “Next” button to move to the end of the proposal. Use the “Take Action on Hiring Proposal” to select “Send to Career Services.” Career Services will verify the student’s GPA and enrollment status before approving the proposal. If there is a problem with the student’s qualifications then Career Services will call you to discuss the matter.

7. After receiving an “Approved Hiring Proposal”, contact the student with a job offer.
